

I respectfully ask that you do not allow LPFM stations to take priority over FM translator services. I am writing specifically for AIR 1 radio, which I listen to on 96.3 FM. The effect of the community would be great if this station were to be displaced. Many people listen to this station here and find it a source of inspiration.